CARRIAGE FACTORY. B. R. HOOD respectfully informs the public that he is still at his old stand in Clinton, where continues to manufacture CARRIAGES, BAROUCHES, ROCKAWAYS AND BUGGIES. He is prepared at all times to execute work with neatness and despatch. He superintends all his operations in person, and guarantees that his I of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Duplin work shall be as durable, as neat, and as cheap as any other establishment in the State.

He is now constantly employed in manufacturing and applying his new patent scroll springs, without which no buggy can be complete. These springs prevent the usual unpleasant motion, and add but little to the cost of a buggy and is of incalculable benefit, as they completely prevent that strain upon the other springs which has given rise to so many breakings. All who want an easy riding buggy will give him a call. May 28th, 1858

LYON'S MAGNETIC POWDERS,

Will destroy Garden Insects, Cockroaches, Bed-Bugs, Fleas, Ants, Moths, and all pests of the vermin kind. The importance of a reliable article of this kind is inestimable. In warm weather all nature teems with these annoying foes. This powder is the only article ever discovered which will exterminate them. A company of botanists, from the Horticultural Society of Paris, while amidst the ferns of Asia, observed that all insects lighting upon a certain kind of plant very soon dropped dead. This fact was made use of to guard their night camps from the intruders. Quantities of the plant was brought home by Mr. E. Lyon, and found a positive insect destroyer in every experiment. It is simply a powdered leaf, chemically prepared to resist the effect of age and climate. Medals and Letters Patent have been obtained from the governments of England, France, Germany and Russia, from the World's Fair, and numerous medical and horticultural colleges and societies.

Letter from the President of the United States. "EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, 31st Jan. 1854. "MR. EMANUEL LYON .- Dear Sir: I have the pleasure to inform you that the Commission, of the World's Fair, at London, have awarded you a Medal and Certificate for the great value of your Magnetic Powders, &c. "MILLARD FILLMORE, Chairman." The above was accompanied by a certificate of Prince Albert. IT IS FREE FROM POISON.

NEW YORK, October 1st, 1858. MR. E. Lyon .- Dear Sir: We have analysed and tested your Magnetic Powders and find them perfectly harmless to mankind and domestic animals, but certain death when inhaled by bugs, ants and insects. JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D., Chemist.

LAURANCE REID, Prof. Chemistry, N. Y. Hospital. Mr. John L. Rome, Superintendant of the New York Hospital, says, "he has expelled all the bugs, ants, roaches, moths, &c., with Lyon's Magnetic Powder, and finds it of Every gardner and housekeeper must have a direct interest in an article of this kind. Reference can be made to the Astor, St. Nicholas, and Metropolitan Hotels; to Judge Meigs, President of the American Institute; James Gordon Bennett, Gen. Winfield Scott, Cyrus W. Field, L. M. Pease, of the Five Points Mission, &c., &c. Judge Meigs says, This discovery of Prof. Lyon is of national importance. The Farmers' Club have tested it thoroughly. It will destroy locusts, grasshoppers, ants, moths, bugs, and all vermin. Garden plants can be preserved, and houses made pure. Arrangements are now made through Mes-rs. BARNES & PARK, of New York, to have it sold throughout the world. Many worthless imitations are advertised. Be cautious!

"NEW YORK, Nov. 8th, 1858. " In retiring from business, I have sold all my Insect Powders and Pills, Letters Paptent, and the secrets pertaining thereto, to Messrs. Barnes & Park. The Powder is a discovery made by myself, and brought from the interior of Asia, and is unknown to any other persons. The genuine and effective article is put up in tin canisters, and will continue to bear my name.

'Tis Lyon's Powder kills insects in a trice, s rins are mixed for rats and mice. Follow directions. Use freely and thoroughly RARNES & PARKS. 13 & 15 Park Row, New York. Jan. 7, 1859.

Mr. Dewart, of Pennsylvania, inquired how far gentlemen present were to consider themselves bound by the action of the Caucus.

Mr. Reilly, of Pensylvania, said he had supposed, from what he had heard, that the subject of the tariff would not be introduced into this caucus. Mr. Stephens, of Georgia, was of the opinion tha this was a council of friends, in which the discussion of any question was legitimate. He did not think it necessary to disturb the tariff of 1857, but he did not consider that any action which the caucus might take upon it would be individually binding upon gentlemen present. He believed that the deficiency in the revenue was only temporary.

Mr. John Cochrane, of New York, urged harmonicus action on the part of the democratic party. He was for retrenchment wherever it could be carried out. The true democratic doctrine, in his opinion, was a tariff

Mr. Singleton, of Mississippi, urged a retrenchment of the expenses of the general government. Mr. Scott, of California, stated that he did not wis to commit himself in favor of an alteration of the tariff

Mr. Whiteley, of Delaware thought that the tariff ought to be modified. He did not believe the revenue sufficient to defray the expenses of the government .-He was opposed to direct taxes, and in favor of increas ing the tariff rather than resort to a loan.

Mr. Barksdale, of Mississippi, expressed himself as de cidedly in favor of a revenue tariff. Mr. Smith, of Virginia, advocated retrenchment, and was of opinion that revenue ought to be raised by lessen-

Insolence of the Mormons-The Federal Authorities

[Correspondence of the St. Louis Republican.] GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, January 14, 1859.—I have nothing important to say, other than that things have arrived at such a pass, that the authority of the Federal Courts is a mere mockery of justice. Neither murder nor other crime has been or can be punished. The Mormons have everything their own way. Judge Sinclair has adjourned his court, and will, on next Monday, adjourn it sine die, for the reason that the laws of the United States cannot be executed in this Territory .-Both Judges Sinclair and Cradlebaugh will leave early next spring, satisfied as they are that their presence as federal officers in administering the laws is merely farci-

cal. A manifesto, carefully prepared, will be issued, as am informed, clearly setting forth their reasons in detail. I have been a careful observer of events in this territory, and am now more than ever satisfied that there is no loyalty to the Government among the Mormon people, and while to a certain extent they pay respect to the mere forms of law, they neither recognize nor respect its spirit. The officers of the Government (and I refer particularly to the Judiciary) although not openly insulted, feel that they are powerless, and are treated with such contempt and sneers, as to make their situations anything but enviable. Anonymous notes have been placed under the doors of the building where the court is held, not intimidating or threatening, but dealing in inuencos and criticisms, so peculiar to the Mormon na-

Judge Sinclair has performed his duty in the premises nobly, with a wise head and discriminating judgment -an earnest desire to deal impartially with all, and a firmness that has never yet wavered. He is chained down in his efforts to administer the laws by the Mormon theocracy, which holds the consciences and oaths of jurors in its keeping. I speak thus of Judge Sinclair, because his position has been a most delicate and responsible one, and in adjourning his court, he has the approval of every well informed man in this Territory.

Judge Cradlebaugh is a man whose metal, both as a gentleman and a jurist, is of the clearest ring, and has proven himself in several instances, which it is not now necessary to mention, and one who has brought to light some circumstances about which the world will, in due course of time, be informed. It may be asked why should this state of things exist with the presence of an army here? I answer, that the army is under instructions, a mere military posse, a police, if you please, and is bound hand and foot, so far as active operations are concerned, and cannot act, except under orders. Gov. Cumming also feels the high responsibility that attaches to himself, and those who know him need no testimony to be assured that when an exigency arises, when the overt act is committed, that he will use all his prerogatives, and the army will have what they have long wanted-something to do. The Legislature has been in session here now several weeks; they have as yet done nothing. This seems strange, too, as it is composed entirely of Mormons, with one exception, and the work is always cut and dried at the palace of the great Mogul himself. The Eastern mail has not arrived in time for several trips, the snow in many places being from fifteen to taxation first and of import duties next to defray the twenty feet in depth from drifting by storms, so that it is impossible to make a trail.

> There are negro balls here every week. They are liberally attended by both Mormon men and women, and not unfrequently a few Gentiles. The women seem to enjoy them most. SHORT SAYINGS LENGTHENED .- We commend the following aphorisms to that numerous class of persons who are always on stilts, using the tallest kind of language to express very common ideas, and who aim to carve out their language in blank verse. Instead of saying, "He acknowledges the corn," they would render it

He doth, by troth, with most ingenious humor,

Confess th' impeachment common fame hath bruited,

That with it carries conviction to the maize. Here are several other well known sayings, which are accompanied by renderings after the manner of those who love "linked sweetness, long drawn out." " Its a long lane that has no turn."-

The way that deviates nor right nor left, But onward leads through space interminable, May be, by fair construction, deemed of length, Somewhat respectable. " The longest pole knocks down the persimmons"

It is an axiom, well received, I ween, That of the tender scions of the forest, The one which, in a longitudinal sense, Eclipses the pretensions of its fellows, May oscillate, until their fall, The staple fruit of Carolina State. " A fine stand for a grocery."-

A most commodious site,

Where all the multitudinous fruits of earth. That nourish and regale the inner man, Are held to barter. " Old hoss, I'll see you in the fall."-When 'neath a canopy of golden leaves, 'Mid all the glories of her state, Summer, in fragrance, breathes her life away, And autumn is enthroned instead,

I'll meet the antiquated steed. From the St. Louis Democrat, January 29.

Letter from Lady Havelock.

St. Louis, Jan. 26, 1850. MR. EDITOR: In a private letter written by me last summer, to my estimable friend, Lady Havelock, I mentioned to her the fact that Sir Henry Havelock's noble character was so highly appreciated by the American people, that on the receipt of the news of his death the flags of the shipping in our harbors were lowered to half-mast-an honor which I believe had never before been paid in this country to a British General. Her reply received a few days ago, contains so expressive a response to that part of my letter, that I cannot refrain from offering it, through you, to the public.

EXTRACT FROM LADY HAVELOCK'S LETTER. * * * * The first intensity of that fearful bereavement, which God saw fit to send me, has been in a manner modified and sanctified by his tender mercy, by the devotion of my loving and dutiful sons and daughters, and by the sympathy of my Queen and country.-But, greatly as I have been blessed and comforted under ory of my beloved husband by that nation across the Atlantic. If I knew what body of sympathizers to address, I would gladly and proudly offer them the grateful thanks of a lonely heart; and I could tell them with honest truth that not one word too much had been said in praise of him who has now received the crown which will never perish. * * * Believe me, my dear

Eliza, sincerely and affectionately your friend, HANNAH S. HAVELOCK. THE WAR CORREPONDENTS .- The wits of Paris are not necessarily belligerent. When the war boke out in the East, crowds of clever correspondents congregated "But," they said with a unanimous voice, "has not the Times its correspondent on the Danube, and does not that suffice for all ?" "It had; but alas! he had been taken by the Russians and shot!" was the ready reply.

"Indeed! The prospect for a man of letters is not then a very agreeable one?" "But he shall be avenged!" "No doubt! and we will remain here to do justice to the details." The same all to street decided a Democratic State Convention. MIDDLETON, Cr., Feb. 9th .- The Democratic State Convention of Connecticut met here to-day. About four hundred delegates were present. General James T.

Pratt was renominated for Governor by acclamation, after one informal ballot. R. H. Winslow, of West Point, was nominated Lieutenant-Governor by acclamation, without any ballot. The rest of last year's State ticket was unanimously recommended. ANOTHER RACER FOR THE ENGLISH TURF .- Mr. Ten Broeck has purchased from Col. Jeff. Wells, of Louisiana, the noted race horse Starke. The price paid was $7,000. The Louisville Courier says: "Starke is one of the best race horses in America, and if he don't make the sporting men of England see sights, blood don't tell." Mrs. Partington has bought a horse so spirituous that he always goes off in a decanter.
